

Scarecrow Competition – Village Day 16 June 2018

It's Scarecrow time again!

'Women in History' is this year's theme for the Village Day Scarecrow Competition. It is 100 years since some women were first given the vote in this country, but women have featured throughout our history.

From Anne Boleyn to Zandra Rhodes, Boudica to Marie Curie.

There are so many to choose from.

We really hope you will have a go this year.

Just google Scarecrow festivals if you need inspiration

There are 2 simple rules:

The scarecrow should be free standing and delivered to the green area in front of McParlands the chemist

by 10.30 am on Saturday 16 June

You should take your Scarecrow home at 4.0 pm the same day

So get thinking and see what wonderful ideas you can come up with.

Entry forms available from Little Chalfont library or Robertson's Butchers.

Last date for entry, Sunday 10 June.
